Introduction and objectives:

The Siddheshwar Shishikendra Prasanna Santhi Vitthal (Daji) Patil Arts Commerce and Science Mahavidyalaya, Salgare was established in the year 2013. The overall development of the rural students is the motto of the institute. Internal Quality Assurance Cell. The college conducts student's satisfaction survey regarding teaching, learning, and evaluation and infrastructure provided by the institute. Receiving positive or negative feedback from all stakeholders is important as both are crucial for monitoring the quality of higher education.

Methodology:

At the end of every academic year the feedback forms are given to various stakeholders like students, Alumni, parents, and Employers. The feedback forms comprise a questionnaire based on various parameters like teaching, learning, evaluation, infrastructure, facilities etc. It is expected that every stakeholder should fill up the feedback form and submit it to the committee for further analysis.

Later the committee analyzes the feedback reports of various stakeholders and the results are put in for

Observation and further action by the head of the Institution.

Following are the parameters used in questionnaire of feedback forms used for various stakeholders.

Introduction and objectives:

The Siddeshwar Shishik Prasirk Santh Vitthal (Daji) Patil Arts Commerce and Science Mahavidyalaya, Salgaon was established in the year 2013. The overall development of the rural students is the motto of the institute's Internal Quality Assurance Cell. The college conducts student's satisfaction survey regarding teaching, learning, and evaluation and infrastructure provided by the institute. Receiving positive or negative feedback from all stakeholders is important as both are crucial for monitoring the quality of higher education.

Methodology:

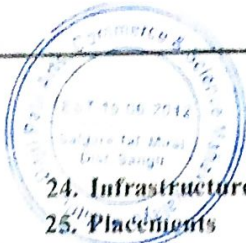

At the end of every academic year the feedback forms are given to various stakeholders like students, Alumni, parents, and Employers. The feedback forms comprise a questionnaire based on various parameters like teaching, learning, evaluation, infrastructure, facilities etc. It is expected that every stakeholder should fill up the feedback form and submit it to the committee for further analysis.

Later the committee analyzes the feedback reports of various stakeholders and the results are put in for

Observation and further action by the head of the Institution.

The college conducts student's satisfaction survey regarding teaching, learning, and evaluation and infrastructure provided by the institute. Receiving positive or negative feedback from all stakeholders is important as both are crucial for monitoring the quality of higher education.

Methodology:

At the end of every academic year, the feedback forms are given to various stakeholders like students, Alumni, parents, and Employers. The feedback forms comprise a questionnaire based on various parameters like teaching, learning, evaluation, infrastructure, facilities, etc. It is expected that every stakeholder should fill up the feedback form, submit it to the committee for further analysis.

Later, the committee analyzes the feedback reports of various stakeholders, and the results are put in for

Observation and further action by the head of the Institution.

Following are the parameters used in the questionnaire of feedback forms used for various stakeholders.
