Gender Audit concept and Policy

About 30 years ago, in 1993, the Australian parliament made a precedent-setting decision. At the initiative of democrats, the Labor Party, the political party then in power, a resolution was passed to look into how the nation budget of Australia was likely to affect the status of women in the country. Gender Audit is a toll to assess and check the institutionalization of gender equality into organizations. Including in their politics, programs, projects and/or provision of services, structures, proceedings and budgets (<http://rm.coe.int/1680599885>). Policy: The institution shall provide equal opportunity for all gender. There shall be no discrimination on the basis of gender. The institute shall arrange effective measures for the safety and security of all gender

Vision:

The college vision of college is to become a dynamic center of educational and cultural movement as a vehicle of social change

Objectives of the Gender Audit Exercise:

The institute shall take effective measures for the safety and security of all genders. There must be an accessible, active, unbiased and confidential Grievance Redressal cell. There shall not be any kind of discrimination on the basis of gender. To develop and enhance the self-confidence and self-esteem of girl students and staff in the college. Overall personality development programs shall be organized, which will develop confidence in the members of the institution.

- ❖ To protect girl students from eve teasing and for the same posters to be exhibited at focal places in and around the college.
- ❖ A certified consultant to be invited to take care of personal development and confidence building among students.
- ❖ Organizing programs to build confidence and instil leadership qualities in the girl students.
- ❖ To join hands with IQAC, Anti-ragging Committee and Discipline committee and Internal complaint committee for creation of gender sensitization.
- ❖ To create social awareness about the problems of women and gender discrimination in particular.
- ❖ The Audit would enable the organization to identify the impact of gender relations on their agency's culture, processes, programs and organizational performance and vice versa.

The Following are the main objectives of the Gender Audit:

- a) To know about the gender balance in the college.
- b) To know about gender perception in the campus.
