- To contribute towards protection and up gradation of the environment for avoidance of global warming and healthy living for man and animal.
- To tell people how sanitation is linked to overall health & happiness.
- To support and implement 'Swaccha Bharat Abhiyan'

The Context :

Tree planting is an aspect of habitat. Trees clean the air so we can breathe more easily. Trees are the main source of environment & maintaining the balance of the environment is need of the hour. The vital gas required for human life is produced through the tree. There, it is beneficial to keep the balance of the environment intact by plating trees. This initiative has been implemented through the national service scheme form the colleges to make the young generation and people of today aware of its importance. The target be driven by on the ground conservation and cleanliness of environmental village area with tree plantation.

The Prictice :-

- In the villages of Salgare, under the NSS campus of the college, students go & plant trees & take care of them & try to improve the balance of the environment by claning the other areas.
- Plantation is done by creating suitable environment soil protection, abundant water supply, adequate use of facilities.

- Every year, the students of the college plant 20 trees at suitable places & take care of them.
- Plastics in the environment work to keep the environment clean & beautiful by proper disposal of waste.
- 'Swaccha Bharat Abhiyan', comes & helps people to keep the area clean by making them aware of the importance of environment.
- Since last four years in the college, this activity is being conducted with the students form National Service Schemes to plant & nature trees & create public awareness for the environmental cleanliness.

Evidence of success :-

In salgare village, on behalf of the Grampanchayat and the local people all the students and faculty members of the college were felicitated. The people there understood the importance of planting trees & keeping the area clean for the development & motivated the student to carry out such activities. With the helps of Grampanchayat, efforts were made to keep the area clean proper disposal of student crematorium, riverside area & garbage.
